Steyning Festival 24th May – 8th June 2014

Steyning Festival has a reputation as 'a gem in the cultural and community life of Sussex' and, as always, we have a programme of events with something for everyone. The festival is made even richer by its association with Steyning Arts, whose creative collective of local artists and artisans produce such high quality work, and help us to attract visitors from far and wide. We are very grateful, too, that this year, Steyning Arts is one of the sponsors for the opening Children's Parade on Saturday 24th May.

Steyning will be buzzing at Festival time. Highlights include visits by the Comedy Store Players, by 'The Sixteen' and Radio 4's 'Any Questions?', plus a Community Fun Day on Bank Holiday Monday and a finale 1614 Dance at Wiston House. James Naughtie, Edward Stourton and comedian and Man Booker Prize Judge Natalie Haynes will be here to discuss their new books. Gruffalo author, Julia Donaldson is visiting too. As part of our celebrations of Steyning Grammar School's 400th Anniversary, we have commissioned a new theatrical offering "Carvings, Corridors and Timbres" from ex-student Alex Packer. Check out the festival programme or website for lots more information.

The Festival Team wishes you all an amazing Art Trail in 2014 and a fantastic Festival.

Programmes will be delivered to every house in the area, and will be available at various outlets throughout the county but for the latest information go to www.steyningfestival.co.uk or find us on Facebook and Twitter.

Become a Friend of the Festival to benefit from priority booking starting a special Friends' event on Thursday 17th April. Contact Jenny Toomey: jenny.toomey@hotmail.co.uk or 01903 814167.

Tickets for the public go on sale on Tuesday 22nd April online and at Steyning Bookshop, 106 High Street, Steyning, BN44 3RD. Tel: 01903 812062.
